WELCOME
TO THE

OCAG 2021 OPEN STUDIO TOUR

This year 102 members of the Orange County Artists Guild will open their studios for your visit the first 2 weekends of November. We look forward to seeing you and sharing our work and our studio spaces. We love to talk with you about our art, and the many ways we create it. For many of us, this is a once-a-year opportunity to exhibit and sell our work. We appreciate browsers as well as buyers.

We hope you'll feel welcome to explore the work of the artists composing our 27th Annual OCAG Open Studio Tour.

- 1 The studios are open the first 2 weekends of November:
SATURDAYS from 10 AM to 5 PM &
SUNDAYS from 12 PM to 5 PM.

NOTE: Some studios are open only one weekend as indicated inside.

- 2 Look through this brochure and select images of artwork that interest you. To see more work by a particular artist, go to www.ocagnc.org and view the OCAG Gallery Pages. Many artists also have their own websites, which are listed in this brochure.

CHAPEL HILL

HILLSBOROUGH & CARRBORO

MINE, collage by Margaret Sartor

Curated solo and thematic exhibitions amidst rotating works by over 50 established artists and craftspersons from across the Southeast, with well over half from North Carolina. The galleries feature large amounts of unframed work in print bins and flat file drawers. In addition to showcasing Horse & Buggy Press titles, our bookstalls feature artist monographs and select titles by other independent presses.

The stage at our downtown Durham gallery is host to literary readings, artist talks, musical performances, and more.

Current and upcoming exhibits . . .

TORN Mixed Media Works by Margaret Sartor, 2016–2021
September 1 – October 29 (a two venue exhibit)

Margaret is a Durham-based educator, curator, writer, and artist who works with photography among other media. This exhibit showcases a sprinkling of Margaret Sartor's personal works from her studio explorations over the last six years. These works, assembled from scavenged materials, found photographs, and altered book pages, are presented as originals and as limited edition archival fine art prints.

FROM FALLUJAH Curated by John Bechtold

October 1 – November 6 at PS118 part of Click Photography Festival

A group photography exhibit featuring the work of four emerging Iraqi photographers. The exhibit proceeds from the idea that the best way to learn about a place is through the people who live there. The purpose is to make another story about Fallujah visible to American audiences, one that departs from its militarized meaning in public memory. Fallujah is not an Iraq War battlefield. It is a place where people work, attend school, and frequent public spaces wanting what we all want, a chance to peaceably choose our lives.

MAGIC OF PATINAS New works by Jackie MacLeod

November 11 — December 24 at PS118

Jackie's wall-based compositions in copper, brass, and steel; and both natural and man-made patinas; celebrate imperfection and surprise.
